

Celebrate National County Government Month

Did You Know Douglas County is one of eight counties that made up the original Nebraska Territory?

Did You Know that Douglas County was named in honor of Illinois Sen. Stephen A. Douglas?

Did You Know Douglas County has had three courthouses since its boundaries were established? The first dates back to 1858 when a two-story structure was built in downtown Omaha?

Did You Know 48 of the 50 states have operational county governments? Texas has the most counties, 254, while Nebraska has 93 counties.
