

Did you know the Douglas County Register of Deeds is the only county office authorized by state statute to maintain the official, complete land-record history of Douglas County properties?

Did you know the Register of Deeds office has filed more than 1,400,000 documents since 2000?

Did you know that in August 2009, the Douglas County Register of Deeds became the first county office in Nebraska to electronically record (e-record) documents in Nebraska? So far the office has e-recorded 7,700 documents.

Did you know that every document that is submitted for recording with the Douglas County Register of Deeds office during the business day is placed on record that same day?

Douglas County
Nebraska

